

Pre-K Program 2012-2013 School Year

We are excited to announce that Grace Christian Academy will continue to offer a Pre-K class for the 2012-2013 school year.

Purpose

The purpose of the Pre-K program is to offer our families a nurturing, caring and safe educational environment that is distinctively Christian. The program consists of important foundational, biblical truths and introductory academic activities that fully prepares the child to be successful in Kindergarten. The program also teaches fun and experiential learning activities that challenge them to be lifetime learners.

Requirement

To be eligible for enrollment, children must turn 4 years old by September 1st of the 2012-2013 school year and they must be fully potty trained when they begin school.

Admission – We will begin accepting Pre-K applications on January 26th, 2012, and we will continue to accept applications until we reach the class limit of 13.

Admissions Process

- Submit admission application
- Submit application fee
- Pastoral Reference form
- Interview
